HANGOUTS

India Mahdavi

xxx
The Paris-based international architect and designer's signature style is a maximalist mash-up of colour, pattern, shape and texture. She's responsible for some of our favourite interiors in Paris – from Hôtel Thominieux, to Jean-François Piège's signature restaurant, or the café Germain – but in London too, with for example the exquisite overhaul of Sketch's main dining room The Gallery. India's elegant furniture and home accessories collections, the fruit of her interior design projects, are on show and sale in two separate boutiques that echo and complement each other. She shared with us a list of spots that she particularly loves in Paris, most of them just a stone's throw from her Left Bank HQ on Rue Las Cases.

Stouls

This boutique opened last September. I helped the designer Aurélie Stouls develop the identity. She designs a collection of leather clothing that you can wash in the machine! The pants are like a second skin, like a pair of jeans. I wear mine every day.
www.stouls.net

Ami

I think this boutique is a success. It sells a contemporary men's wardrobe made with beautiful fabrics. I take my son here. But even for women, the clothes are appealing.
www.amiparis.fr

La Laiterie Sainte Clotilde

Right by the office, this restaurant run by Jean-Baptiste and Catherine is a local fave. You run into everyone there, and the short menu changes daily.
64 rue de Bellechasse, 7th.

Shakespeare & Company

Everyone wants stories today. Family stories, community stories. It's a club, a special place dedicated to reading and the poetry of life, with an enormous selection of books.
shakespeareandcompany.com

Castel

Recently taken over by a gang of Parisians and redecorated by André. It's fun, it's very Left Bank, it's like a nocturnal Café de Flore: you bump into everyone!
www.castelparis.com

Silencio

I go out at night more often now that there are places like this and Castel. A cultural site, centred on ideas and exchange, it has a great programme.
silencio-club.com

Galerie Laurent Godin

I like the programme at this little independent gallery. I've bought quite a few pieces, by Vincent Beaurin or Gonzalo Lebrija for example. The galerist has a good eye.
www.laurentgodin.com

Marché Biologique Raspail

Markets are an important part of life for Parisians. I go to this organic market every Sunday.
9am–3pm Sunday ·
Boulevard Raspail, between Rue du Cherche Midi and Rue de Rennes, 6th.
